

Eriko Kawai

Professor, Kyoto University Graduate School of Advanced Integrated Studies in Human Survivability

Research Focus

Global career development, Global communication, Intercultural understanding, Finance

2012 – 2014, Professor, Kyoto University's Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences
Prof Eriko Kawai obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from Harvard University (USA) and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from INSEAD (France). She has worked for the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD, Paris, France) and the Bank for International Settlements (BIS, Basel, Switzerland) as a pension fund specialist / manager and as a pension expert on IMF missions. She has also worked as a fund manager in asset management companies in the UK and Tokyo, and as CIO in a privatization program in Poland.